J. W. Evans Passes--- Funeral Wednesday

Raymond lost another of her pioneer citizens and builders last Saturday morning in the passing of John Wm. Evans, from a heart ailment, suffered a little over a month ago. The funeral services were held in the Stake House Wednesday afternoon at 2pm with Bishop L.L. Palmer of the 2nd Ward in charge. The hall was filled with friends, gathered to pay their tribute to a man who had served long and well in many fields. The profusion of flowers was a splendid tribute to the esteem in which he was held.

The opening song was "Oh My Father" with prayer by Patriarch O. H. Snow, and Frank Taylor and his wife. The Quartette sang "The Teacher's Work is Done."

Elder Jas. H. Walker, who has been associated with deceased for 42 years, and who had labored with him in the 2nd Ward Bishopric for twelve years was the chief speaker. He referred to the long and arduous service of deceased in church and community work, in which he was ably and willingly assisted by his wife. He was a great teacher, and in Sunday School, District Quorum and Mutual classes he was nearly always teaching. He had been connected with nearly every service that had spelled progress for the community since his arrival here, and his ability in speaking and in writing had made him a real asset to everything with which he was connected. We had suffered a real loss in this man's death.

Elder Heber E. Allen of the Stake again now after a sick spell bordering on death, said he had been taught by deceased in most church classes the motto of Rotary, to which organization he belonged "Service Above Self." He read a number of deceased's favorite poems and said he was sure J. W. would be pleased to see this large audience at his funeral services.

Mrs. King and Walker sang "We Say Good Night Here but Good Morning Up There."

Pres. T. Geo. Wood read the 121st Psalm as a scripture that typified the life and faith of deceased. They had worked together in business and in church affairs for 20 years, and he mourned the passing of this man very much. He was a peace-loving man, and he was among the first to express a desire to pass on and years and then filled a mission in the world, and despite all efforts to keep him here, he had gone on. He said that during his sickness he had since that time had the motto to his with every progressive move in the family "do all the good you can to district. He was office manager for everyone you can," and this surely the first Sugar Factory operated was typical of the busy and useful here, engaged in the Mercantile business of deceased. He read several poems that were also favorites of Massey-Harris Co. and since he was a member of the present Sugar Factory has been a member of the Stake.

Elder Geo. Richards of the 1st Ward in charge of the funeral services. He read a statement of his wife, and the following children: Frederick M. Grant, regarding the death of their father, and John and Alma, all of Raymond. Geo. then preached a fine sermon on the eternal progression and life after death. He urged the family to follow Charles Ackroyd of Magrath, Paul, a prisoner of war in Germany, and Bishop Palmer said he had been Garth with the R.C.A.P. in Montreal taught by deceased in many of his with the many friends of the family classes and he owed much to the we extend our deepest sympathy in love and devotion of deceased for their hour of sadness.

LOAN PROGRESSES

At Thursday night, Loan totals reported to Ottawa totalled nearly $280,000,000 or a little less than 25 p.c. of the total. In the first four days, Ten units in Alberta reported over three top. Continued effort will be needed to reach the objective. Come on Canada lets do it again.

ALLIES MEET ON ELBE

Friday's radio announced the union of the Soviet, British and American forces on the Elbe river south of Berlin, and this junction cuts Germany in two and marks the end of virtually all German resistance.

Jacks lose to Vancouver

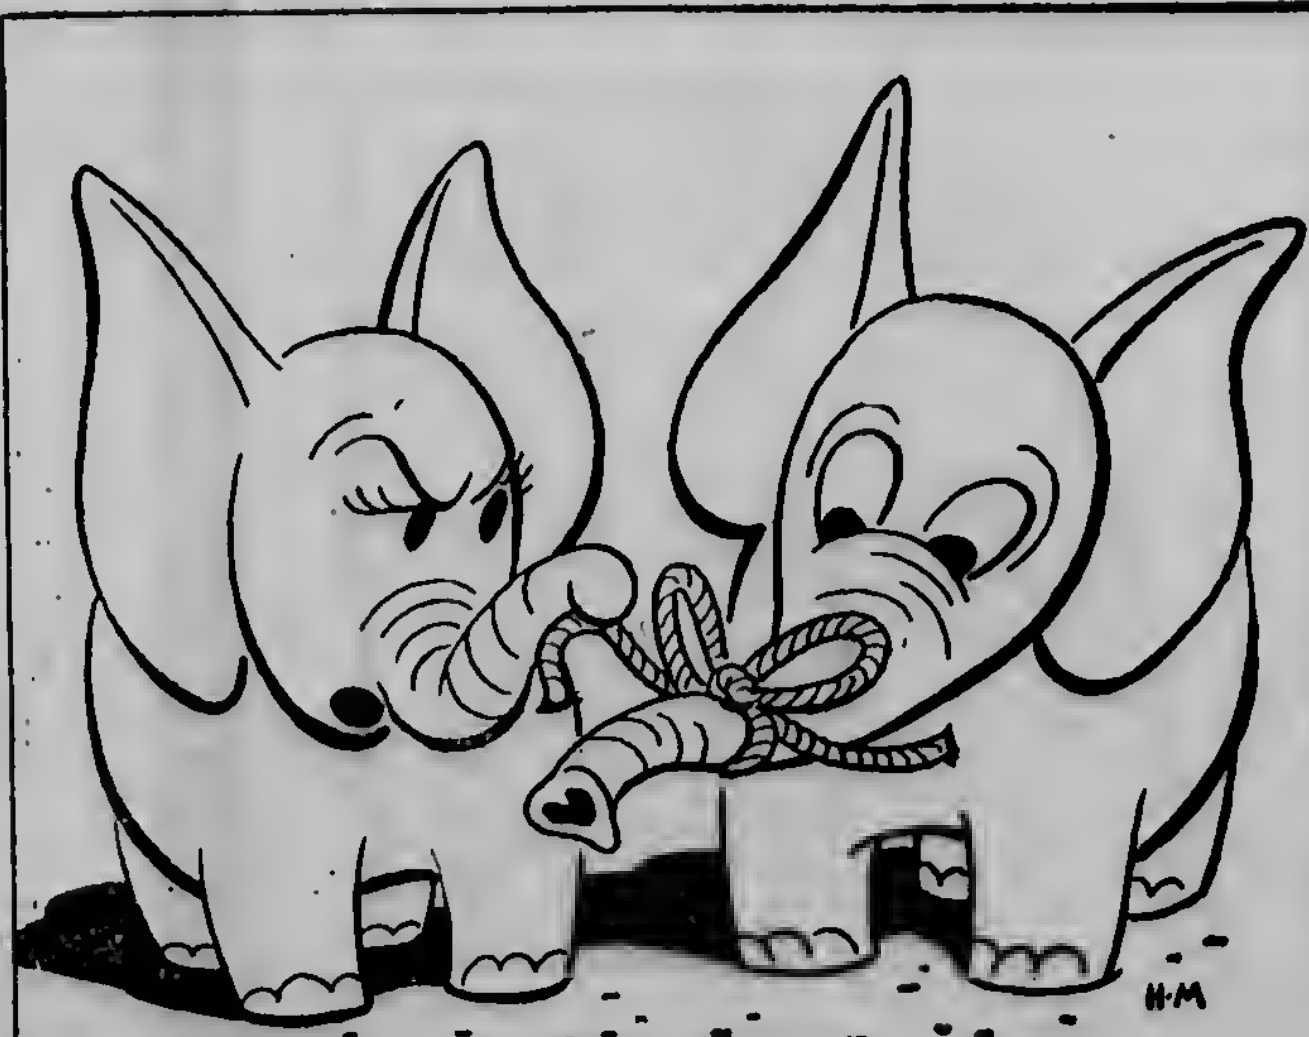

In their trip to Vancouver, representing a 1 point victory. Tuesday evening in the Dominion day night, Vancouver's men were defeated 5-40, giving the Vancouver team, represented Alberta very well, were defeated royally by Vancouver Merritt-Hayes Helcats, eastern out all the former Raymond residents.

Part of the team returned by time and made a very favorable impression. They toured the city in a visit to the shipyards and congratulations, to the Jacks for their fine showing. They devote a lot of time in their practice, they work for a ride to the top in their shoes and living like the rest of us, and they they suffered a 7-42 defeat. Monday still go out and defeat everything night they played their best game except the top teams each year in and had a one point lead with one amateur competition. Sometimes we get so, and then just as the weather I we appreciate our boys beat soundly. Vancouver dunked the as much as we ought to.

STORMY WEATHER

The past week has been very busy and unsettled, and Wednesday and Thursday were really cold for this time of year. There was quite a bit of snow Wednesday night, and the sun was shining most of Thursday. We also had a wet snow for a little while Tuesday which all melted before night.

No farm work to speak of has been possible yet, and farmers, especially beet growers, whose land needs quite a bit of work before they are getting anxious. However the season is not too late yet, and the moisture is very welcome and will do an untold amount of good. With power equipment and nice warm weather from now on, the work will be done in a hurry and the district away to another good crop year.

NEWS NOTES

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Melchior Thursday night a baby girl. Mother and daughter are doing fine.

Mrs. Cecil Finch was taken home from the Hospital last Sunday and is convalescing nicely.

A Sadie Hawkins dance in Stirling last Thursday night drew quite a number of young people from here over to our neighboring town.

C. R. Wing, Plant Superintendent of Canadian Sugar Factories Ltd., eternal life removes the sting of business for the past ten days.

Don't get discouraged, spring will soon be here. Years ago in this country the winter snow never left the ground until the first part of May.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zohell Friday night last at the local Hospital, a 9 lb. baby boy. Mother and son are doing well and Bill is standing the strain very well.

Ernie Organ went to Calgary Monday morning this week for an operation in the Col. Belcher military Hospital there. He is suffering from kidney trouble.

Ernest H. Nilsson is in Vancouver, B. C. on a business trip having gone there on business and to encourage the Jacks in their ball games.

The hockey playoffs for the Stanley Cup went the full seven games, and the next three, and the Maple Leafs taking the odd game and the cup.

Three one-act plays, one by the 2nd Ward and two by the 1st Ward were presented in the first Ward last Friday night. It was budget entertainment and a large and appreciative crowd was present to enjoy the evening.

J. Vely Heggie took the plane from Lethbridge Sunday morning to master mind the Jacks in their games against the Vancouver Lauries. Maybe it was Vely's presence that made such a good game between the two teams on Monday night.

Miss Lentrico Scoville was a week-end visitor here, and is going from here to Georgia, where she is to be married to a former Western Canadian missionary now in the U. S. for the best wishes of her many friends here will go with her and her husband for a long and happy married life.

The Stake House was filled almost to capacity on Sunday afternoon for the funeral services of Arthur E. Fawns, member of the Stako High Council and former Bishop of the Stirling Ward. There was a very large crowd present from all over Southern Alberta, and a profusion of floral tributes, showing the esteem in which deceased was held. Bishop J. O. Alickson had charge of the service and the choir was conducted by Mrs. Margaret Young of Stirling with LeRoy Stone at the organ. Seats in the choir loft were filled to capacity as Stirling and both Raymond ward choir members were there.

The opening song was "On My Father's" and Elder Donald Oler, a cousin of deceased in Stirling for many years offered the opening prayer. The Stirling Bishopric as a Male Quartette sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Elder Ellis S. Henniger of the High Council was the first speaker and referred to his acquaintance and association with deceased in church and business capacities for over 10 years and the absolute dependability of deceased when a task was under taken. The presence of the Stirling people in such numbers was a fine tribute to deceased and the fine chapel and amusement hall, built during deceased's tenure as Bishop were monuments to his ability as an organizer and a leader. While the body was dead, the spirit was alive and was already engaged in other duties in the spirit world. An understanding of the Mormon doctrine of eternal life removes the sting of death.

Mrs. Louie Brandley sang "Face to Face" the violin obligato being played by Bishop Erickson.

Elder Ray Hardy, also a member of the High Council and a counselor to Bishop Fawns in Stirling for 30 years was the next speaker and said he doubted if too high a tribute could be paid to deceased for the long and faithful service he had rendered the people of Stirling.

He was a man who loved his people and they loved him, and many more of the Stirling people would have liked to be in attendance. Bishop Fawns was kind and merciful in judgment and unbounded in his love. The speaker quoted a number of deceased's favorite sayings and hymns to show the spirit that ruled him.

Jos. McLean sang "Goin' Home" as a request number.

Pres. T. Geo. Wood endorsed all that had been said and read from the New Testament regarding death and the life hereafter. He hoped the family would be comforted in their loss by the memory of the fine life of service which deceased had lived, and the spoke of the reunion in the spirit world of the many leaders of this Stake who had passed away during the past few years.

Bishop Hicken endorsed all that had been said and praised the tenderness and devotion of Mr. Fawns who had done all that was possible to make deceased's last years pleasant. On behalf of the family, he thanked all for everything that had been done.

The closing song was "Come, Come Ye Saints" and the benediction was offered by Elder C. E. Alfred. Burial was in the family plot in Stirling cemetery and Bishop A. D. Erickson had charge of that part of the service.

G. Wm. Evans, of Layton, Alta., the best wishes of her many friends here will go with her and her husband for a long and happy married life.

When discussing the C.C.F. amendment to the School Act to increase the teacher's minimum salary to $1,000, Premier Manning said, "But where will the money come from?" Incidentally he has $15,000,000 in cash for the Bondholders. S.L. Colburne said, "There is one thing. I cannot go back to the men in the service and say: That we have no money for this kind of thing." This country had no money to give men jobs and a decent living in 1939 but it could find unlimited money to carry on the War, and if War went on for another 20 years it would still find the money. The Hancock Dairy Herd, therefore, is one of the very few herds in Southern Alberta that has a "Clean Bill of Health" both as to T. B. and Bangs Disease.

As to our premises, we need nothing, for it is a matter of common knowledge that they fully meet all Health Department requirements, and are second to none in Raymond. Our Milk Handling equipment is sanitary and automatic, and we believe, the finest south of Lethbridge. We are at present installing other equipment that will place us on a par with the City Dairies, and enable us to give you a pasteurized product.

SUGAR FOR CANNING

For tasty, nourishing and economical winter desserts, most Canadian housewives will again do some preserving this year... jams, jellies and all kinds of fresh fruits.

Sugar is still very scarce. We must continue to conserve our supplies.

This year, the allowance for home canning will be the same as in 1944—ten pounds per person. Be sure to use your ration sparingly.

HOW TO GET SUGAR FOR CANNING

Instead of special home canning sugar coupons, twenty extra preserves coupons in Ration Book No. 5 are being made available for the purchase of sugar for canning.

These coupons are good for half a pound of sugar each or the stated value in commercial preserves, for they are the same as any of your preserves coupons.

You may use any other valid preserves coupons to purchase sugar, also at half a pound each;

No exchange is necessary. Your grocer will accept any valid preserves coupons when you purchase sugar for canning.

There are now only two kinds of coupons for sugar. The regular sugar coupon, good for one pound of sugar, and the preserves coupon, worth half a pound of sugar.

SUGAR FOR CANNING COUPON CALENDAR

USE ONLY AS REQUIRED

The twenty extra preserves coupons for sugar for canning will remain valid until declared invalid by the Ration Administration. You do not have to use them immediately. You will be given plenty of notice of their expiry date.

GUARD YOUR RATION BOOK

If you lose your ration book, the extra preserves coupons which have already been declared valid will not be replaced. It is up to each consumer to look after his or her ration book.

Mr. Editor

For some years the students of our High School have been in the habit of declaring a "Stiff" day instead of an "Initiation" day. It would seem that all concerned have either been in favor of this practice or have tolerated it with good humor. However, this year on the Thursday before "Good Friday" some students took it upon themselves to start a new practice. This seems very out of place as Good Friday and all of the following week were holy days. Some of our students do not seem to care to attend school regularly and find great sport in getting others to follow them in their disregard of regulations.

The School Board feels that lack of support is too wide spread in our community. Some parents uphold the students in breaking school regulations. We hope this is not a general attitude throughout for if our schools are to function as they should mass breaking of regulations cannot be tolerated.

Our schools have held an enviable position in the past in achievement and we intend to do all in our power to maintain our standards. It is to the interest of all concerned to help in upholding and raising higher the quality and tone of our educational standards at all times. Fun is part of our school life and all people are human but we must not overlook the fact that certain rules must be upheld.

We are sure the community will support us in stating that no such
